“ Monica, please accept our sincere condolences and prayers as you navigate through the coming days without your beloved husband. It's been many years, since serving and worshipping together at Holy Ghost Corner COGIC in Hawaii, but you all have never been forgotten as your love for Jesus and each other made an indelible impression on our lives. Forever in our prayers, James & Elisa Calhoun

“ My condolences to you Monica, Ray, Tirish, Vernon, and all the rest of the family.

I have many great childhood memories of my cousin Billy. We spent many summers at First Bibleway's Vacation Bible School, moments of racing and playing in the church yard with Billy are etched in my mind. He was always well mannered and cheerful and I will never forget his competitiveness as we had our foot races in the church yard. He was fast and I could never beat him but I tried every summer. I'll always remember that little smirk of a smile that he would give me before we raced 😊

I will miss our holiday text messages that we always exchanged on Thanksgiving, Christmas, New Year & Mother's/Father's Day.

Though we lived miles apart and seldom saw each other, I'll miss you Billy. I love you and you will forever be in my heart. Once again...you have accepted the challenge and won the race... You have received the real gold In Jesus name!

“ Monica,
Hugs and prayers. This so breaks my heart. 💔
Denise and I had such a wonderful trip with y'all 'in the back of the bus' on our Niagara Falls trip. Let me know if there is anything I can do for you. You know I'm close by. RIP William. 💔😭
