

William Delbert Jamison, Jr.

November 20, 1960 - November 26, 2023

William Delbert Jamison, Jr., affectionally known as “Billy,” was born November 20, 1960, to the union of the late William Delbert Jamison, Sr., and Shirlee Faye Thomas in Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania.

Billy began his educational journey within the Penn Hills Public Schools. He graduated from Penn Hills Senior High School and went on to further his education at Slippery Rock University of Pennsylvania, where he pledged Omega Psi Phi. He was also a part of the Modern Free and Accepted Masons of the World, Inc. Lodge #483.

William came to Christ in his adult life. He was a part of the Pennsylvania State Council of the Pentecostal Assembly of the World.

William’s career choice took him down the path of Law Enforcement. He pursued a career as a corrections officer where he served in the D.C. Department of Corrections as well as Georgia.

His favorite pastime activities included his riding motorcycle, golfing, smoking his cigars, and rooting for those Cowboys. “This tells you he was by far, NOT a perfect man.”

He was survived by his wife, Krishawna Jo Whatley-Jamison; children, Caleb

Joseph of Los Angeles, CA, Myah Jordan of Covington, GA, William Josiah of Atlanta, GA, Lyniah Joelle of Newnan, GA, Aale'yah Jolee' of Covington, GA, Jayla Smith and Raychelle Tunstalle, both of Pittsburgh, PA, and India Henderson of Washington, DC; granddaughter, AvaLynne Grace of Covington, GA; sister, Kathy and Dan (spouse) Watlington of Marietta, GA, Terri Thomas of Harrisburg, PA, and Shirlee Jamison II and Sondra Carzell-Stepney Dawn and Romus (spouse) Myers, all of Charlotte, NC; brothers, Thomas B. Jamison of Pittsburgh, PA, Noel and Lorraine (spouse) Jamison of Waldorf, MD, and Sam and Nykeisha (spouse) Carzell of Rock Hill, SC; and a host of neices and nephews, and great-neices and great-nephews.

Billy will leave a legacy of "hard work." He believed that "if a man won't work, a man won't eat." He instilled that into his children and his friends and co-workers. "Jamison," as he is affectionally referred to, never met a person that he couldn't make laugh. He will be missed.
