“ To the family, a song writer wrote" if I could touch just one someone along my way then my living won't be in vain." Well Knox didn't touch one but many and I was one of them. The talks and prayers we had together will always be with me and he will truly be missed. He fought his fight and ran his race, now he rests. May his memories and the love you have for God help you through the pain and bring you comfort.
