“ To the family & friends:

Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few find the comfort they search for. The unscriptural doctrines that are taught concerning death do not leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that "God works in mysterious ways" or that "God needed another angel", does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. Nonetheless, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ My sincere condolences go out to you and your family for your loss. During Jesus' Millennial Reign, obedient subjects of God's Kingdom will grow to perfection, eventually becoming completely free from all the effects of Adam's sin. (Romans 8:21) Jehovah "will actually swallow up death forever, and the Sovereign Lord Jehovah will certainly wipe the tears from all faces." (Isaiah 25:8)

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. The loss of a love one brings us the anguish of grief. Comfort can be found in God's word, the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Taking in true knowledge of the true God and his son Jesus, assures us eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To the Family:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer encouragement from the Scriptures. God's Word assures us: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." ~John 5:28,29. May your faith in God's secure promises continue to sustain you all as you look ahead to a future when "death will be no more." ~Revelation 21:3-5. God is faithful and always keeps his promises! ~Isaiah 26:19, John 11:25.
