“ There are people who come into your life and leave you feeling good about yourself and life in general. Such was the case for our beloved Uncle Kenny. He didn't just see us through his eyes, he saw us through his heart. Knowing our shortcomings, Uncle Kenny saw us for who we were, he didn't try to change us, he accepted us broken, with all our frailties by showing us all grace. He was a good uncle when he came into our lives and even a better uncle when he left us. We pray God's angels escorts him safely to the homeland of his soul.
