“ So sorry to hear that William DeWayne Virgil; Wayne as we called him passed. I met Wayne and his lovely wife Chars Ruth Virgil in 1982 at Hinsley Tabernacle COGIC. We instantly friends only to find out we lived very near each other.

It became a running joke, when asked on Sundays where they were going to eat. Wayne would say Eunice's house. There was nothing they wouldn't do for us.

When I retired in 2016, and wanted a place to host my retirement celebration Chars and Wayne readily offered Skyline Christian Academy. Then refused to set a price. Saying well whatever you want to pay.

There's so many more wonderful memories that is so incredibly amazing.

My heart is heavy at Wayne's transition. My prayers are certainly with Tamara, Dwayne Jr and the entire Virgil family that God would give them comfort and strength during this most difficult time.

*Love and prayers 🙏

“ Wayne and my friendship dates back to the 1980s when his son, Dewayne, and my daughter, Antoniette, were in the Sunshine Band at Greater Hinsley Tabernacle COGIC. We became friends from the start, having common interests like computers and programming. We found out our birth days were a day different, (his October 14, 1956 and mine October 13, 1956 making me the oldest, that was an inside joke between us) which brought us even closer, wishing each other happy birthday each year and occasionally we celebrated together by going out to dinner with our wives.

He drove to Augusta last year to surprise me at my Mortician Of The Year Banquet, although he wasn't healthy. I will miss him and the times we shared, but I know he and Chars are happy to be together again for eternity. Enjoy your rest, my friend. We love you, but God loves you more.
