“ Praying for the family and friends of William White may the Lord Peace and Comfort abide with each of you during this time of bereavement. Bill was a dear friend, who love everybody and always had a word of encouragement, hope and inspiration to share. Had I known that our short business meeting in Atlanta on Nov. 6, 2013 would be our final meeting, I would have made sure to tell him how much he enriched my life by being my friend. I'll miss talking with you Bill but hope to see you someday, in God's presence. ~ Mardina Blackshire, Tulsa, Oklahoma

“ The loss of a love one brings much grief and sadness, but there is so much comfort that can be found in Jehovah's God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and Revelation 21:3, 4.

“ My sincerest sympathies to the White family, please accept my condolences during this time of grief. Never did Almighty God purpose for the enemy death to take away our dear loved ones, leaving a pain and void in our hearts. Jehovah God does purpose to awaken those asleep in the memorial tombs to a life of eternal blessings on a Paradise earth. (John 5:28,29; Revelation 21:4)

DrivePortsmouth, VA 23701To My Dear Cousin Roberta & the Family of the Late William White:My heart goes out to you in your time of sadness. I will always remember William with Love and Affection. After the death of Edward, he was my Mother's only living nephew. She loved his visits and he always made an effort to stop in to see her whenever he was visiting the Eastern Shore of VA. He knew the value in knowing his family history and shared this whenever we saw each other. I was often amazed at his remarkable memory and detailed knowledge. He was blessed with a kind heart and humble spirit.Although I cannot physically be with you I know that I share in your loss With Love, Gladys Sample Andrews-and the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus. (Philippians 4:7)
