“ Man this is a hard one here I tried calling you in march to tell you happy birthday but no reply. about a week ago I text you to find out that someone else had your number right then I felt something in my stomach that wasn't right and today after I researched only to find out that you had transition over. Meeting you back in 2007 was nothing shy of laughs and smiles I could remember we would just sit in the mall and people watch and make jokes. Or just catch an matinee. Will this hurt more so that I wasn't able to be there for you. you treated my kids as if they were like your own. Words cannot express my feelings right now. I know there are so many ppl that is in disbelief you were a hard worker and businessman you meet many people who love you and you put smiles on their faces I love you and I will forever hold a special place in my heart for you for the family you guys lost an awesome man and to the grandson just know that your grandpa never ever stop talking about you. love you always and forever Will 🙏 Stacy

“ 2020 was a year of loss for a lot of people! Mr. Willie I just learned of passing from someone at the gas station. They said they had hear it, but didn't know if it was true. I couldn't get to my car fast enough to call you phone. When the phone was answered with Hello and I shouted I'm so glad to hear your voice only to be followed by who is this. At that moment I knew the information was true.

I will always remember the kindness you showed to my family and the lessons you taught me about life. You were a good friend and brought a smile to of people's face when they saw you. You will be missed and my heart goes out to your family!

“ A Life Time Friend. From my junior year and your sophmore year we have been friends. Even thought we lost contact off and on, we've always some how are another reconnected. However, this last reconnection a few months ago will be the one I will cherish, remember and I thank God we communicated once more before you said good bye. I will miss you. R.I.P.

“ My brother I love your smile I have seen it many times but I noticed it the most at your 70th birthday party. You were so excited and happy to party with friends and family members . Love you R. I.P

“ My dearest Brother-in-law Calvin, Sister Betty, and the entire Brown Family,

In the evening, weeping comes to stay through the night, but in the morning, there is rejoicing!

I pray that as you wake in this brand-new day that your heart finds comfort in each tribute that is made and shared in remembrance of your brother, father, uncle, cousin, and friend Willie whom I shall endearingly remember at Big Willie Blue.

My fondest and funniest memory of you Willie will always be sitting at Calvin and Yvonne's house at Christmastime and remembering you showing up all decked out in “smurf blue”, literally, from head to toe – hat, sweatsuit, and sneakers - proud, confident, and self-assured as only you could be. I pray that you now rest in peace in a big blue sky free of pain and suffering.

To my brother-in-law Calvin, I pray a special prayer for you for this has been a season of great loss and sadness. You are the stone God hued out of the mountain knowing that it is your strength, steadiness, and durability that would be needed at such a time as this. I pray for your strength in the Lord for He has called you to do a great thing. He has dispatched you as an angel and comforter, he has chosen you to lead the family in this season of bereavement even as you are bereaved. I pray that you will lean on the Lord and draw your strength from Him believing that He who has called you into the light and begun a great work in you has equipped you and will not leave you. Remember Matthew 11: 28-30 “Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.”

Love your Sister-in-Law Deborah
