“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family. I know that the loss of a love one brings much grief and agony. Thanks to our Heavenly Father we can find resurrection (John 5:25 Acts 24:15) and the end of death and suffering.(Revelation 21:3,4) Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus , assures us all eternal life (John 17:3) For more Bible based comfort on how to cope with the death of a loved one visit : www.jw.org

“ I would like to offer my sincere condolences for your loss. At times like this words are never enough to heal the pain. I believe this is because GOD created us with a desire to always be with our loved ones. I hope the words at Revelation 21:4 can bring you comfort ... “ And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry or pain be anymore.” If you would like to read more bible passages please visit www.jw.org you will be able to view them in several different languages or listen to audio recordings at a time convenient for you. Again please accept my condolences.

“ I offer condolences and Scriptural comfort to the family and friends of Mr. Scott. Please keep in mind... "God sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). God is faithful and always keeps his promises!
