“ Sincere condolences to the family. Mr. Hinton and I met in DeKalb County at a breakfast event sometime around 2005. His calm, cool nature immediately put me at ease, in what was an unfamiliar social setting. As time passed and our encounters continued, I learned that he was a proud and honorable man, always flanked by his gracious wife, Virginia. We enjoyed many conversations about politics and current events and I'll always remember his encouraging words and positive demeanor. His kind, consistent nature will be missed.

“ Somehow I always picture Willie at Hillside Presbyterian (or at one of the church picnics or retreats). Often he was helping to prepare delicious food, as in the annual Black History Breakfast or at a picnic. He was sometimes the greeter in the lobby as someone entered the church. He was always warm and welcoming. He made Hillside Presbyterian Church a better place. I offer my deepest condolences to Virginia and to all the family and friends of Willie Hinton. May God console you and may his memories bring you joy.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Willie at Georgia Power Company for many years. He was one of the first people to welcome me to the company and was generous with his knowledge to help guide me as a newbie to corporate America. His smile and caring spirit will be missed. Rest well, my friend.

Virginia you have my heartfelt condolences during this time. I will miss my cousin especially having him for dinner on holidays. I love his ability to communicate with the younger family members. He will be truly missed.
