“ Keys was truly a remarkable and genuine person whom I was honored to know. Working the night shift at Bon Air RDC allowed me to see his kindness and sincerity firsthand. I am grateful to consider him my friend and brother. To his wife and daughters, I pray that the Lord provides comfort and peace during this difficult time. May His presence bring you calm and solace in your grief.

“ It was quite moving to run across this post relative to Wil this morning. A couple months ago I randomly ran into him at a car junkyard looking for parts to an old Honda accord. Hadn't seen him since I retired from the DEPARTMENT OF JUVENILE JUSTICE where we first met. I was looking for a door switch but left my tools in my car so couldn't retrieve the part. Wil called my name ..hey Johnson!!..and flashed that smile as we greeted one another. He offered to take part off of the car and we engaged in small catchup talk. I remember him as being a quiet cool guy that had a peace about him. Prayers to the family and I am so sorry for your loss. My name is Mike Johnson and I was a counselor at the RECEPTION AND DIAGNOSTIC CENTER in the bon air area in the state of Virginia.
