“ To the family of Mrs. Willie Maddox: Please accept my sincere condolences for your loss. Death is the enemy of all mankind, yet when it touches us personally, few seek the comfort they search for. The doctrines that are taught concerning death find their origins from men and not the Bible. As a result, they fail to leave those who are grieving with comfort or a hope. They do however, leave many with unanswered questions. The response that God works in mysterious ways or that God needed another angel, does not satisfy the spiritual needs of those who are grieving. However, many have found comfort in the pages of God's word the Bible (2 Corinthians 1:3, 4). In God's word we find the promise that we can be reunited with our loved ones (John 5:28,29; Acts 24:15). The Bible tells us where this happy reunion will take place (Psalm 37: 11, 29; Matthew 5:5). We are told why we die (Genesis 3:17-19; Romans 5:12), and that the God of the Bible will end death forever (Isaiah 25:8; Revelation 21:3,4). Learning the truth about Jehovah, the God of the Bible (Psalm 83:18), God's Kingdom (Daniel 2:44), and the state of those who have died (Ecclesiastes 9:5), is the start to finding true comfort concerning loved ones who are sleeping in death (John 11:11-14; John 8:32). “ Aunt Willie will surely be missed. We were talking about going to visit her, unfortunately we can't now. I thought she was cool and always made me laugh. All the way from Detroit, may you rest in peace your great nephew Anthony.

“ May your hearts be comforted as you keep in mind that God's Word promises: Your dead ones will live....They will rise up. ~Isaiah 26:19. Jesus confirmed his role in this loving provision when he said: I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life. ~John 11:25. Continue to draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you, ~James 4:8.

“ Cousins, Unfortunately, with a one-day turn around, it will be next to impossible for me to travel to Atlanta in time for the service. Having lost my mom (Dorothy) just a few years ago, I know how difficult this must be. I pray that Aunt Willie is resting in the arms of our Lord. I was planning to come to Atlanta to see her and the rest of the family at the end of the month. Barbara Jean or Star, if you get this message, please don't hesitate to contact me as I would like to touch base with you when I arrive. Meanwhile, my prayers are with you! -D Email: D.Irenekey@yahoo.com (I'm Dorothy's youngest daughter.)
