

Willie Cid Mims Jr

January 12, 1951 - June 4, 2022

Willie Cid Mims Jr. fondly known as W.C, Will, C-Bo, Paw Paw and Granddad was born on January 12th, 1951 to Willie C Mims Sr. and Louisa Mims Brooks in Cleveland Ms. He was raised by his father James Williams Brooks Sr., in Tupelo Ms. He accepted Christ at an early age. He received his formal education at Shannon High School, in Tupelo Ms.

Willie began working at North MS Medical Center for 10 years: Shelter Globe for 3 years; and then Mid South Packer for 2 years in Tupelo MS. He then moved to Atlanta, GA in 1979. He began working for Dudley's for 5 years; Saxon's Trucking for 13 years; and then Rock Tenn, where he retired after 25 years of service.

Willie loved to cook! His crowd favorites were his cornbread, sweet potatoes, chicken and Dressing and his chocolate on chocolate cake. He talked to his sisters every morning about what everyone would be cooking that day. He enjoyed telling jokes, working outdoors and he never met a stranger.

He welcomed anyone into his home. Willie's greatest joy was, loving and caring for his family. Where ever he went, he was well respected. Many of the younger generation called him "The O.G". When you played with him, you played by "Mim's Rules". He would sit at the table and tell his grandkids, "Whoever finished eating first, can help the others finish their food". Willie was a father figure to his grandkids and to many others. He was a very humble and patient man.

Willie was preceded in death by his mother, Louisa; Father, Willie; his step Father, James; his brothers Arthur L Brooks, James Brooks Jr., Douglas Mims and William Mims Jr.; his sisters Doreatha Edwards, Victoria Mims, Dorothy Weems and Cindy Weems; nephews Charles Brooks and Darvia Brooks; and his great nephew Raybric Mims.

Willie departed this life at Northside Gwinnett Medical center on June 4, 2022.

“ Bro law, you are definitely missed. You were easy to talk to regardless of what the conversation was about, you were more than a brother in law, you were my brother. I love you and already missing you dearly. It's going to be hard coming to your house and not seeing your face. R.I.P my brother!!
