“ Grief can be so hard, but our cherished memories help us cope. Hold tight to those memories....Lean on each other for support.... And look to God’s word the Bible, for comfort and strength. James 4:8 encourages; “Draw close to God, and He will draw close to you.”

“ My condolences in the loss of your beloved family member. At difficult times as these, we need comfort to help us cope. The Bible have beautiful words to do just that. Psalm 34:18 says; Jehovah is close to the brokenhearted; He saves those who are crushed in spirit. Isaiah 66:13a assures us; "As a mother comforts her son, so I (God) will keep comforting you." May these promises from our loving heavenly father help you to cope with the sadness and grief now and in the days ahead.

“ May you all gain comfort as you keep in mind that "God is our refuge and strength, A help that is readily found in times of distress." ~Psalm 46:1. He is aware of your sorrow and "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." ~1 John 4:9. Jesus resurrected dead ones when he was on the earth, giving us evidence of what he will do in the future. (Consider John 11:25).

“ It is with a very sad heart that I have to say farewell to a friend. Willie had such a good heart and was a really fun person to be around. Although I have not known him for a long time I consider him a friend. I will continue to pray for and ask God for healing and strength for the family. God Bless and see you on the other side Sir.
