“ To my family, Teto lit up every area that he entered. He brought joy, happiness and light with him. No one was a stranger to him. I will miss him dearly and think of the many funny things that he said. May God grant you comfort, peace and understanding in this time of grief. I love you all. Sending love, prayers and hugs. “ To my brother, my assistant poll manager, my Sunday morning rider, my friend and the man who assisted me with fixing my father's breakfast every Sunday morning and transporting him to IHOP after service, may you be in Heaven two days before the devil knows that you are gone. I love you, brother. 💙🌸 Waddell M. Britton Jr.
