“ Dear Adams Family, In his word the Bible, our Creator promised us something wonderful, that there is indeed hope for seeing loved ones again: John 5:28,29 tells us: "...the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out..." All those who demonstrate love and obedience to God have a prospect to enjoy a life together on a beautiful, peaceful earth restored by Him: Psalms 37:10, 11: "...the meek ones themselves will possess the earth, and they will indeed find their exquisite delight in the abundance of peace." Those who are gone have already paid the penalty for sin, which is death. (Romans 6:23). What wonderful hope you have to see Willie again.

“ I'm so sorry to hear the passing of a wonderful man that I had the pleasure of working with in Carrollton, Georgia.

THOSE WE LOVE DON'T GO AWAY,
THEY WALK BESIDE US EVERY DAY,
UNSEEN, UNHEARD, BUT ALWAYS NEAR,
STILL LOVED, STILL MISSED AND VERY DEAR.

“ To the Family of Mr. Adams,

I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death and I offer sincere condolences. We experience great sadness and pain when we have to say "good-bye" to our dear loved ones and friends. May I encourage you to look forward to the fulfillment of God's promise that "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear Jesus' voice and come out." (John 5:28, 29). May "the God of all comfort" grant you peace!

“ The day I learned of Sarg's passing was one of the blackest days of my life. It felt like someone had put a hole in my heart. I have such wonderful memories of him from my days at Gupton-Jones College of Funeral Service in Decatur.

"Adams" was a wonderful person. He was my mentor during my clinical practice at Gupton-Jones. We spent hours together in the basement of Sellers Brothers Funeral Home, and any time I needed him at my own establishment, he came to my rescue...

Sarg was a wonderful teacher, and practitioner. I have tremendous respect for him, and his skill as an embalmer. He was always immaculate, well -dressed and just a wonderful person to be around.

I will NEVER forget him. The family has my deepest deepest sympathy. We have lost a wonderful friend.

“ My heart is heavy to hear of the passing of Sgt. Willie Adams. He made a great impression on my life when I first started training under him at the Sellers Brothers Funeral Home.

He was a gentleman in every sense. When he saw a student that was interested and wanted to learn, he invested his time and expertise with them. I'm most grateful for him seeing the potential in me.

He was a no nonsense person. I can remember every time he showed me a technique in embalming he would either undo it or have me show him what he done. I would give him a look as if to say "Why you undo it"? (smile) He wouldn't say a word and look at me as if to say "Don't you dare question me.

He was a man who took pride in his work and would dare challenge anyone or any technique.

I feel privileged to have been one of his students. I will forever have fond memories of him.

Rest in Peace Sgt. Adams - I love you!
