“ Please accept my sympathy for the loss of your dear loved one. Revelation 21: 3-5 holds out a promise that in the near future the sting of losing loved ones will be a thing of the past. For Jehovah God has comforted mankind through his Son Jesus Christ that he will soon awaken those who have fallen asleep (John 5: 28, 29). What a time that we all look forward to!

“ To the family and friends of Ms. Willine Jackson. I am praying for all of you during this time. I will never forget her and the blessed times of fellowship we had during the church services each week at the Nursing Home when she was able to attend. She was always asking us to remember her dear nieces and nephews in prayer. May God bless each and every one of her family, friends and Church family.

“ Aunt Willine was such a nice person. I remember her making me feel so good as a child. She kept me quiet at church with gum and pepper mint. She will be missed

“ Please accept my condolences on the loss of your dear loved one. Take comfort in knowing that our Heavenly Creator understands your pain. He will soon remove all pain, sorrow, and death forever! (Rev 21:3,4) May this promise be of comfort to you as you gain the strength and inner peace to cope with the days ahead, remembering that God will be by your side (Philippians 4:13).

“ I would like to express my sincere condolences to the family of Ms. Willine Jackson. The loss of a love one brings much grief and agony, but there is so much comfort that can be found in God's word the bible. The promise of a resurrection at John 5:28, 29 and that death will be no more at Revelation 21:3, 4. Getting to know the true God and his son Jesus, assures us and our loved ones eternal life. (John 17:3)

“ To the Family and Friends of Ms. Willine Jackson:
I'm sorry that your loved one fell asleep in death recently and I offer Scriptural encouragement. God has made a loving provision to restore dead ones to life and he assures us: "Your dead ones will live....They will rise up." (Isaiah 26:19). Jesus confirmed his role in this promise when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." (John 11:25). Continue to "draw close to God (in prayer) and he will draw close to you." (James 4:8).
