“ Dear Wilson Family: Please accept my sincere condolences for the loss of your loved one. May the love and support of family and friends comfort you greatly during this difficult time. The Bible also gives us comfort and hope to see our loved ones again right here on earth by means of the resurrection. “There will be a resurrection of the righteous and the unrighteous “ May you have peace as you think about this beautiful hope for the future.

“ Mr. Wood, a man with little words, and a big heart who loved and went the distance for his family. I'm reminiscing about a time I received a call from Mrs. Mary in tears. The city had taken her cats to spay them and only returned the ones they didn't want. We loaded up to go to the animal shelter to get justice about Mrs. Mary's cat and demand their return. You boldly stood behind me as I confronted the women behind the window. We sat hours waiting for them to search the back for the kittens knowing they weren't there. Although we return empty-handed, we had the last word, threatening to report them to Vernon Jones about this incident. We regretfully return to Mrs. Mary, reporting the results of our finding - her kittens were gone. It broke her heart, then our hearts. I'm going to truly miss you Mr. Wood! I can still hear your voice calling my name from your room, amazed you still recognize it after several years. My pops away from home.

Love Ya!

“ He was the only grandfather I knew. He treated me so good and was always considerate of the things I needed. He was a very peaceful man who was a true believer of God. I miss him so much. He will always be “My Buddy”.
