“ Yolanda you were my sister in Christ, I am devastated and heartbroken and I miss you more than words could ever convey. I am still trying to process the fact that you are gone. Your kindness, consideration, caring, generosity and love are just a fraction of your legacy. You touched so many lives, I am humbled that mine was one of them. You were not only my hair dresser but true my friend. Your friendship can not be replaced. I will continue to miss you, I know grieving is a long process; but I will not be selfish. God has called you home to your reward. You have finished your race and now you shall wear your crown in glory. I love you now, and always. My sincere condolences and prayers, in abundance, are with your entire family.

“ I will truly miss my friend and sister. My heart has not hurt this bad since my brother died. We spent over 25 years as friends doing so many things together. The pain will get better with time, but you will always be in my heart. Prayers for Charles. Devin, Evonna, Donavon. Dillon, and Symone. May God keep his comforting arms around you. “ My heart is broken as we have lost a friend and consummate professional in the field of hairdressing and style. She was so careful to provide the “same” attention to detail for every client. My daughter and I have been the recipients of her fabulous work for more than twenty years. I often told Yoli, as we affectionately called her, that she would be our exclusive stylist when I hit the big time. Our friend has now entered the land of “No More” pain and suffering. I know all too well that we will meet again in Glory. Our deepest and sincerest condolences and Prayers are sent to the family as you take on this new journey without your beloved; find comfort in all the beautiful memories you built together over the years. Proverbs 3:5 (KJV) “Trust in the Lord with all thine heart; and lean not unto thine own understanding.”
