“ Like Yvonne, I also grew up in London, and it's something we discussed on many occasions. There were so many things that were strikingly similar. We talked about many things including the (cold) weather, similarities in the food, and of course, one tradition that all West Indians perpetuated - "The Front Room."

To Sana and the rest of the family, I pray that Our Heavenly Father, the God of all comfort, will comfort you and grant you His peace during this time of bereavement.

With regards to the service, Yvonne had a home-going that was fit for a Queen. She will surely be missed!

“ Our thoughts are with the family. May God comfort you during this time of great loss. There's a sense of helplessness when someone we love dies. Many wonder how one gets through this time. Take time to reflect on the good times you shared with your love ones. Prayer is extremely valuable at this time.
