“ Although I didn't know your loved one personally, as a concerned reader I would like to offer my sincere condolences to the family. May you be comforted by your loving memories, family, and close friends. Know that our Heavenly Father Jehovah (Psalms 83:18) is near to us in our times of distress. (Psalms 34:18) The Bible assures us a time when sickness and death will be done away with, (Revelations 21:4 Isaiah 33:24) and a time when our loved ones we lost in death will be resurrected. (Acts 24:15 , John 5:28,29) Our Heavenly Father will grant us the mental peace we need (Phillipians 4:7) when we draw close to him in prayer. (James 4:8) May this scriptural comfort soothe your heart until these promises are fulfilled.

“ I offer sincere condolences and Scriptural encouragement to you all. God made a provision to raise up ones who fall asleep in death when "He sent his only-begotten Son into the world so that we might gain life through him." (1 John 4:9). Jesus confirmed his role in restoring dead ones to life when he said: "I am the resurrection and the life. The one exercising faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life," (John 11:25). "God is for us a refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress." (Psalm 46:1).
