

Zelda Helena Alicia Jackson

December 8, 1948 - October 21, 2021

Zelda's journey called life began on the evening of December 8, 1948. Zelda was one of two children born to the late Charlotte Fassitt Parker and James Hall Parker, Sr. She was born and raised in Philadelphia, PA. The first five years of her education she attended Friends' Central School in Wynnewood, PA. This school is recognized as a prestigious, outstanding Quaker school. Zelda's older brother James Jr., was among the First African Americans to attend this school in 1949. This was indeed a sacrifice for her father who worked three jobs to ensure that his children received a good education. Zelda graduated from Germantown High School.

Zelda was the proud and privileged mother of her precious daughter Alicia Lauren White. Zelda and Alicia had a loving and unyielding relationship.

At an early age she was a member of Christ Church & St. Michaels Episcopal Church where she began her journey as a Christ centered youth. It was in the Episcopal faith that she was christened when she was an infant and confirmed at the age of twelve. As an adult after studying and researching other religions, she joined the Baptist church. After accepting Christ as her Savior as an adult, she was baptized and seriously began her walk with Jesus. Zelda was a member of Enon Baptist Church in Philadelphia, and proudly served on the trustee and joint boards. Upon relocating to Georgia she joined Christ the King Baptist Church. It was at Christ the King her relationship with Christ enhanced through the teachings of the late Bishop W. Ron Sailor, Sr.

Zelda considered herself a "Proud Democrat". She was a member of Gwinnett County Democrats. She enjoyed volunteering for many candidates such as President Barack Obama, Stacy Abrams and local House of Representatives. She became involved in many voter registration drives in her community.

Zelda was employed by the Philadelphia Housing Authority for twenty-five years. She began her tenure as a clerk and retired as a Contract Specialist in 1997. She began another career with Abington School District in various capacities. It was in 2005 that she became ill which forced her to retire again.

If you knew Zelda, you witnessed her strength, endurance, and her faith in God. Her disability could not stop her; she often expressed this was God giving her another chance to fulfill her dreams. In 2006 she made a bold move to Georgia. Also, her darling daughter resided in Georgia and was soon to be married to Nathaniel White. This prompted her to pack her things, sell her home and move to Lawrenceville, GA. This move was truly a blessing and orchestrated by God because later she became the proud grandmom to her little angels, the absolute joys of her life, Andre and Aaron.

In addition to being a mom and grandmom, she was known for her impeccable taste in decorating and fashion. She loved to entertain. All genres of music she enjoyed and could be heard in every room of her home. Zelda's all time favorite female singer was Nancy Wilson. Cooking became one of her favorite hobbies. She often created new recipes for her family and friends to enjoy. She enjoyed traveling, especially cruises with family and life long friend, Denise Walker Myers.

Zelda was a loving person with a warm smile. She was known for her sense of humor, hearty laugh and giving spirit. She surrounded herself with friends, family and neighbors. She held dear to her heart her dogs (aka "her babies") Buddy and Choncey. Choncey has been her devoted companion for over fourteen years. He never knew he was a dog as he had every right and privilege that a child of royalty experienced. She believed animals deserve unconditional love because they show their love and loyalty in every way to you.

At the end of her journey she was fortunate to move to what she called her "dream home". Once again she was blessed to do what she loved and decorated each room with the warmth and design that only she could express.

Zelda's spirit will forever be remembered by family and friends she leaves behind; her daughter, Alicia and son-in-law Nathaniel; two grandsons, Andre and Aaron; her brother James Jr. (aka "Butch") who preceded her in death and a host of relatives and loyal friends.

Alicia my boys and I are heartbroken hearing of cousie Zelda's passing. Cousie was the first girl I meant when I moved to Phildelphia in 1962. Oh what fun we had at her Hortter St. Home. I loved her like a sister and the my boys called her auntie Zelda 😊. So many,many beautiful memories we had. And when she moved to Atlanta I was so sad but happy she could be close to you her beautiful daughter and those precious grandson's who she addored and her son-in-law. She will be missed no more long phone conversations but she is with God now in another happy place. Aunt Lucy, the boys, and I are here for you always. We ❤️ you and the boys always cousie Jennie 😊🙏

Alicia, my thoughts and prayers are with you. I was heart broken when I found out your mom had passed. I met her when she became a patient with the physician's office where I am a nurse. At first meeting I told her how she looked like my fathers sister who had passed away. From then on she became "Aunt Zelda" to me. I spoke to her last on my birthday 09/06. I told her she had to help me decorate and how much I loved her home and her. I also remember telling her my baby brothers name is Chauncey. Please know that she will always live in my heart my Aunt Zelda.

“ *Zelda was a long and sincere friend. We laughed, danced, sang and enjoyed each other's company for more than 50 years. I guess my favorite memory was that ay my grandkid and I stopped by to see her on the way to Atlanta. When I saw her lovely house I half expected interns in burgundy blazers and corduroy ropes to lead us into the house. Every item was just perfect and she welcomed us with open arms and tons of home made food.
The conversation was joyous just like the atmosphere and bring around Zelda in general. I was so sure I would see her again after Covid. I love you Zel and will miss the sound of your voice. I am so glad Alicia is able to keep Chauncy. I am sure we will cross each others paths on our eternal journeys! Love to everyone from the Lloyds in Bucks County.*

“ I am sending my condolences to Alicia and family. I was living in Atlanta when I learned that Zelda had moved to the area. Well, of course I gave her a call. When she answered I yelled "HEY ZEEK" . Her response with that Zelda laugh: " I don't recognize the voice but I know it's somebody from the neighborhood. Keep talking" In a matter of seconds she knew it was me.

We talked we laughed and we caught up. With Zelda it was hard to tell that we had not spoken in years. It was more like we had just talked yesterday and that was the way it was. If I wanted to catch up or just wanted a good laugh. Just call Zeek and my old friend would be there.

I will forever look through the rear view mirror of life and talk to my dear friend.

“ Wow, this one hits hard! Zelda was the first person I met and shared an office with at the Philadelphia Housing Authority when I started there in 1983! I think folks thought it would be a problem for her, me being 23 years old and knowing nothing. But God knew the blessing he had in store for me! Zelda dubbed me "the little whipper snapper" and then taught me everything about the department, and trust me she knew EVERYTHING! I was able to learn and grow there, gaining more and more knowledge and responsibility and eventually became Director of the Department! I didn't know it at the time but God had prepared that place for me and placed his angel, Zelda Jackson (and Jackie Siler) at the gate to watch over me! WON'T HE DO IT!!!!

You were truly a blessing to so many people at PHA with your quiet confidence, sweet personality and crazy sense of humor. I thank you for sharing yourself and "Leeshee" with me and my family and pray that your journey home was peaceful. We will keep you in our thoughts, Alicia and family in our prayers and know that we will see each other again.

Love you Sis!

“ Much love to Alicia and her family in the passing of her awesome mother Zelda. I first met Zelda as a neighbor at a neighborhood luncheon approximately 7-8 years ago and we became fast friends. I feel privileged and blessed to have known her and to have shared so many laughs and stories together. I feel incredibly sad that she is no longer with us, but likewise am able to celebrate her homegoing! She is now absent from the body but present with the Lord! When I think of her I will always smile, remembering her humor, her class, her love of life, her ability to always look like a million dollars, her ability to decorate her home beautifully, and her welcoming spirit even when you dropped by (with no warning) to visit her. I love you Zelda and will miss you always. Thank you for being you. We'll visit again one day. With love, Faye Miller

“ To Alicia and Family,

Mrs. Zelda was my buddy, my friend, my computer client, neighbor, and some of everything else. Reading the obituary, I remembered her decorating skills, and how when I was working on her computer, I would just sit there and talk just to look at her beautiful home. The last time I saw her over the summer, I had no idea that it would be the last time. I always tried to treat her how I would want someone to treat my Mom when I would do computer work for her. If it was nothing too much, she would always say, how much do I owe you? I would say don't worry about it, and she would always say I have to give you something. The first time, she asked what kind of beer I drink, and I told her two kinds. She said she would drop it off. When she showed up, I was expecting a six pack of each. She shows up with a 30 pack of Coors light and a 24 pack of Yuengling. She never wanted to accept me doing anything for her and not paying me in some kind of way. We talked politics, music, art, and of course her house design.

I called her back in August, and she never returned my call. I knew that was unlike her, and I had told my Wife I needed to check back with her, and the next day or so is when I received the news she had passed. That really hurt me, because I really wished I could have told her how much she meant to me. A wonderful soul, take your rest. To Alicia and family I pray that God continue to give you strength and comfort during this time. I love you Mrs. Zelda!!!

Dear Alicia, Nate and Family, I remember when I first met Zelda. She came to pick me up from my hotel in PA. I was someone who was the mom of one of Alicia's friends. We bonded immediately. Zelda was warm, friendly and caring. I knew I had just made a good friend. I was glad when she moved to Atlanta. We did not see each other regularly, but kept in contact through our daughters, who are like sisters. Zelda IS HERE, looking over us, and sharing her beautiful love...I send my hugs to you Zelda.
